ADDITIONAL NARRATIVE

|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| AGENCY NAME LAKE STEVENS POLICE DEPARTMENT | INCIDENT CLASSIFICATION Collision / DUI | INCIDENT NUMBER 13-02318 |
| NAME OF VICTIM(S) Fairweather HOA | | |

ASSIGNMENT:

On 09/16/13 at about 1409 hours, Ashley Roehl called 911 to report what she believed was an "impaired" driver operating a large motor home (bearing WA License Plate AIV1427) driving on the wrong side of the roadway at S. Davies Road and Chapel Hill Road. The vehicle was later found to be operated by James Daniels II.

Roehl followed Daniels from S. Davies, westbound up Chapel Hill Rd and then westbound onto Market Place unit Daniels turned south into the Fairweather Condominiums (located at 9210 Market Place).

Roehl continued following Daniels and stated that at 1415 hours, she observed Daniels turn right toward the car-port and strike the car-port, damaging both the motor home and the car-port.

Roehl stated that Daniels then ran from the vehicle into the complex, but returned a few moments later and she believed Daniels was intoxicated based on his manner of walking.

ARRIVAL OBSERVATIONS:

I pulled into the north end of the complex and began search for the vehicle when dispatched related it had collided with a car-port. As I reached the south end of the complex parking lot I observed Daniels standing in the parking lot near a damaged car-port with a surprised/dumfounded look on his face. As I exited I heard Daniels stated, "I can't believe I did that!"

I noted a female (later identified as Ashley Roehl) in the parking lot behind Daniels pointing toward Daniels and saying, "That's him".

Daniels appearance seemed disheveled and dirty (dirt/stains to his clothing and dirt on his hands and exposed portions of his arms) and began pacing in small circles in the parking lot. I asked Daniels if he was okay and he stated he was. I asked Daniels for some identification and he immediately began to quickly scan the area around him as he lowered his center of gravity. I recognized this as a possible sign of a subject's possible intent to flee the area, so I quickly removed my handcuffs and place Daniels into handcuffs. After cuffing Daniels I had him sit on my front bumper as I obtained his personal information, because Daniels did not have any identification on his person at the time.

I asked Daniels what had happened and he began talking in a loud rapid fashion, so I asked him to slow down and with a softer voice. Daniels had to be reminded of this several times during the entire contact.

WITNESS STATEMENT:

Ashley Roehl

Roehl stated that she was driving behind Daniels northbound on S. Davies Rd and that Daniels was swerving all over the roadway and began driving in the opposite lane of travel. Roehl was concerned so she called 911 because she believed that Daniels was intoxicated.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing statement is true and correct.

| | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| NAME OF VICTIM(S) Fairweather HOA | | |

Roehl followed Daniels up Chapel Hill Rd and onto Market Place and while stopped at the light he got out of the vehicle and staggered over to converse with a homeless male at the corner of Market Pl and SR 9. Daniels got back into his motor home and continued westbound until turning into the Fairweather Condo complex.

Roehl followed Daniels in the parking lot and when he arrived near the rear of the complex she observed him turn right into a stall and collide with car-port. Roehl watched as Daniels pulled forward and then quickly exited the vehicle and ran toward the buildings. A few seconds later Daniels came back to the parking lot as I arrived on scene. (For additional, refer to statement attached to WSP Saucerman's DUI Report)

CONTACT SUBJECT AGAIN:

I returned to Daniels at my bumper and SnoPac Dispatch was able to verify Daniels identification so I asked Daniels, "If I removed the handcuffs, promise you won't do anything stupid" and Daniels replied, "Yeah!"

I then noted that Daniels eyes appeared glassy and he seem to have difficulty focusing his eyes and Daniels was also having difficulty maintaining his attention/concentration to simple task or questions (sit down, don't yell). I did not note the odor of an alcoholic beverage on Daniels breath, but he would sway from side to side and appeared to have difficulty keeping his balance when standing. When I asked Daniels if he was under the care of a doctor, was a diabetic or had been injured he replied "No".

REQUEST WSP:

I believed it was possible based on the witness's statement, the accident and my observations of Daniels that he could be DUI and asked if there was a WSP Trooper in the area who wished to take that portion of the incident. A short time later WSP Trooper Saucerman arrived and I apprized her of the circumstances I had.

Saucerman began conversing with Daniels and I later noted she was giving him the FST's and used a portable BAC. The portable BAC showed a .000 and Saucerman stated she also suspected impairment by something other than alcohol. Saucerman transported Daniels to the Monroe Police Department for a DRE evaluation.

VEHICLE DISPOSITION:

The RO (Wilma Daniels) is a person known to me from various prior social contacts, so made efforts to locate her and avoid the Fairweather HOA having her motor home impounded. Wilma was later contacted and she was provided the keys to the vehicle which she later had removed from the parking lot.

RECOMMENDATION:

I completed the Traffic Collision and recommend that the DUI portion of the case be handled by WSP.

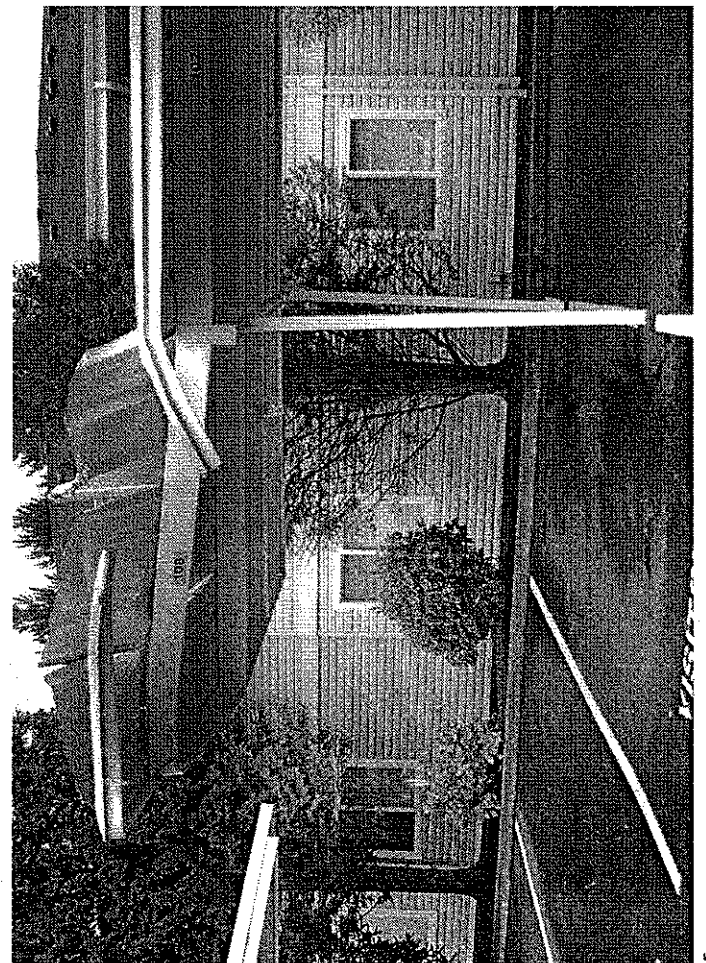

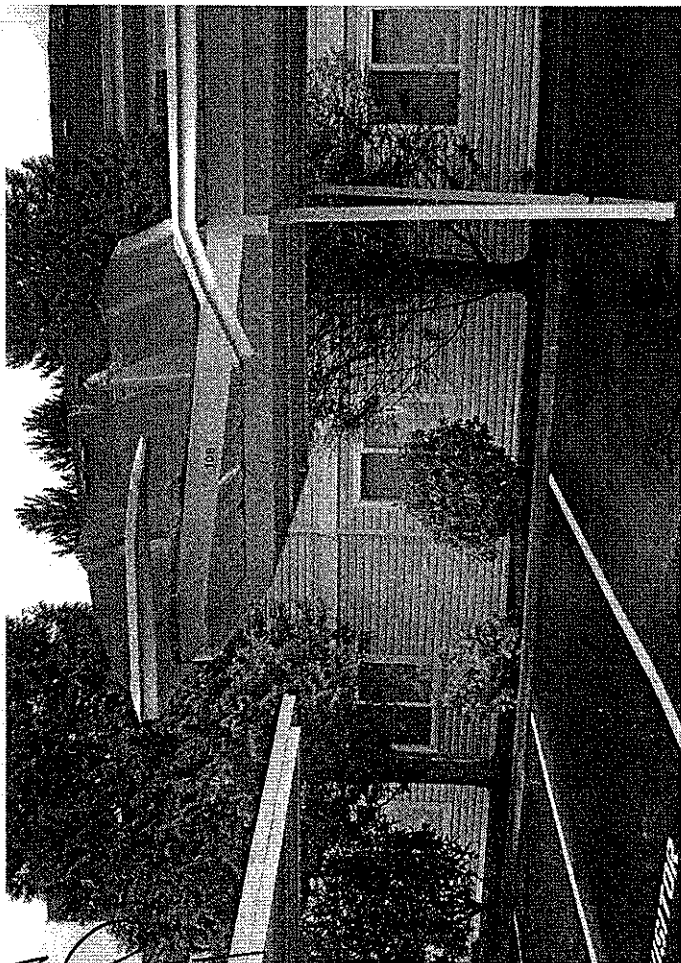

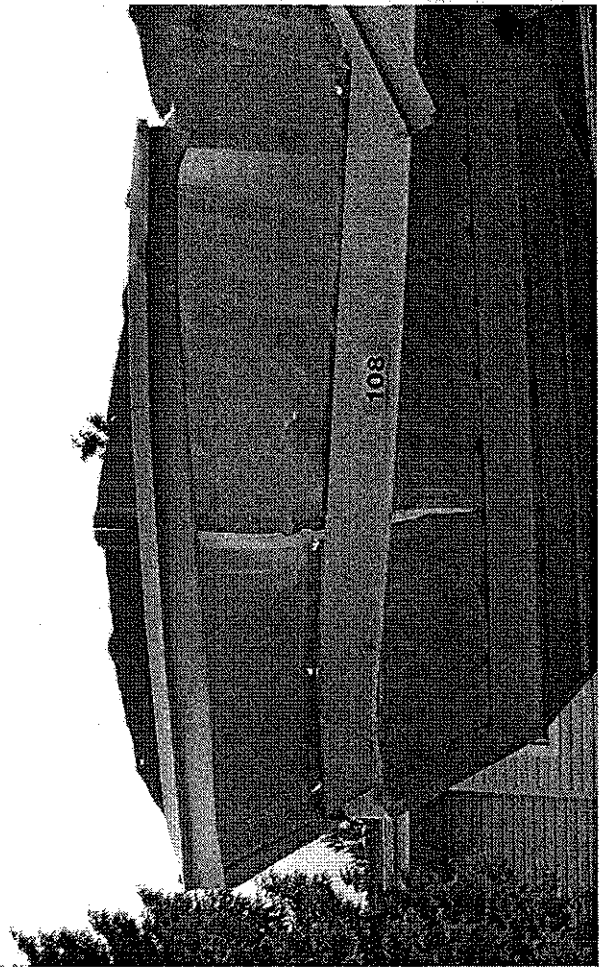

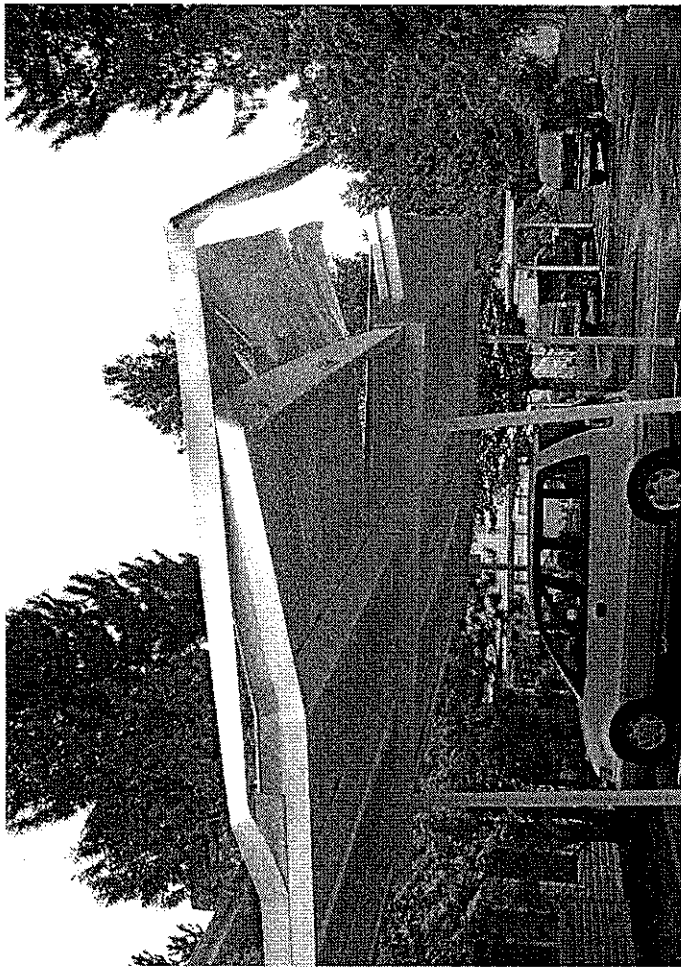

DISPOSITION:

Daniels arrested by WSP on suspicion of DUI.

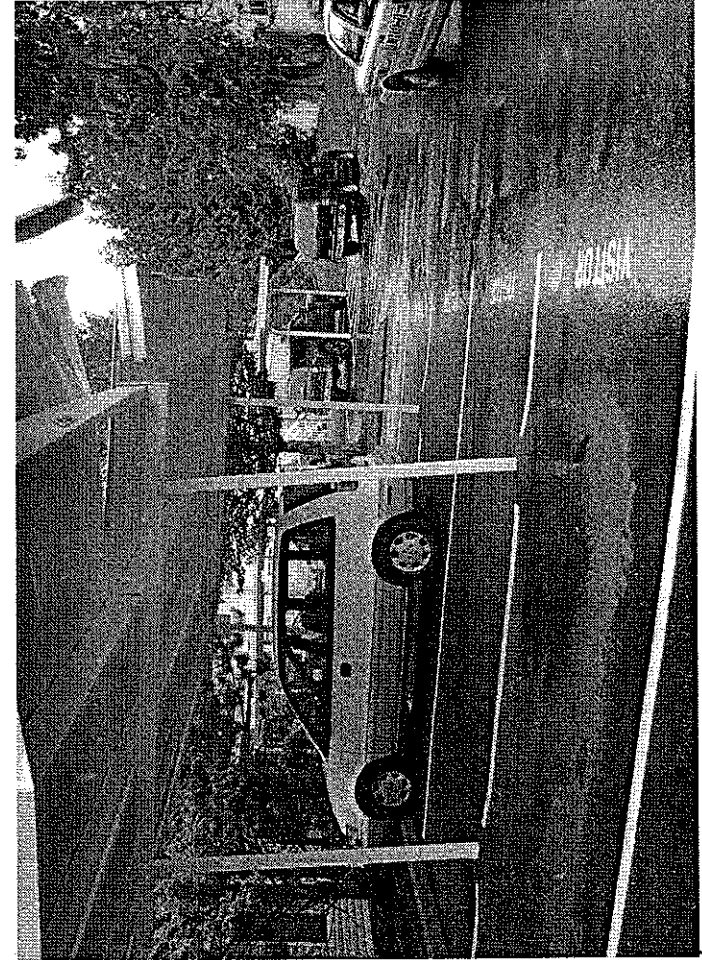

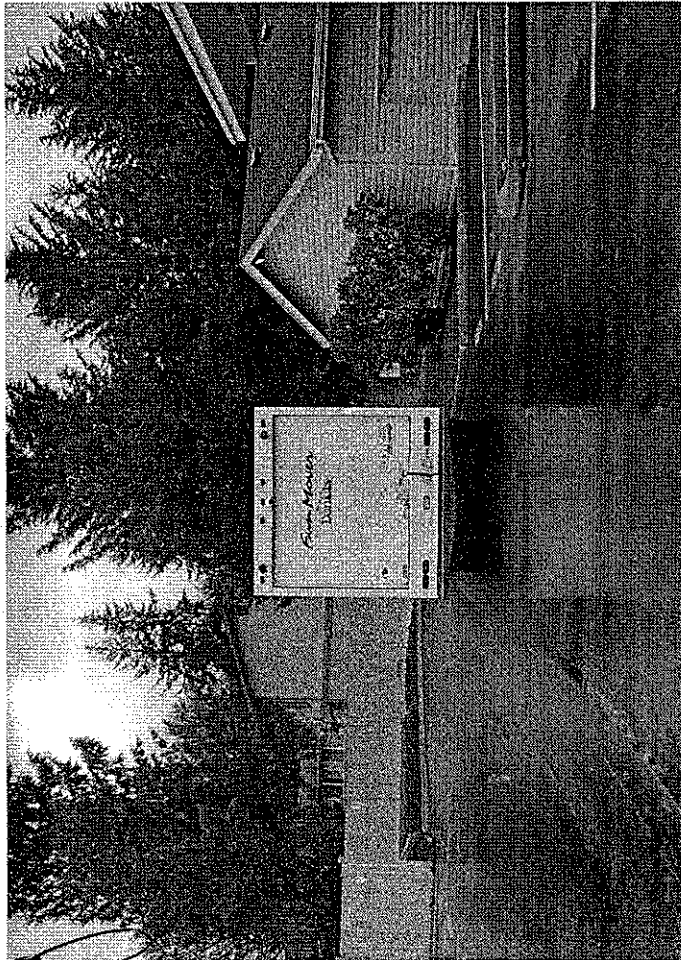

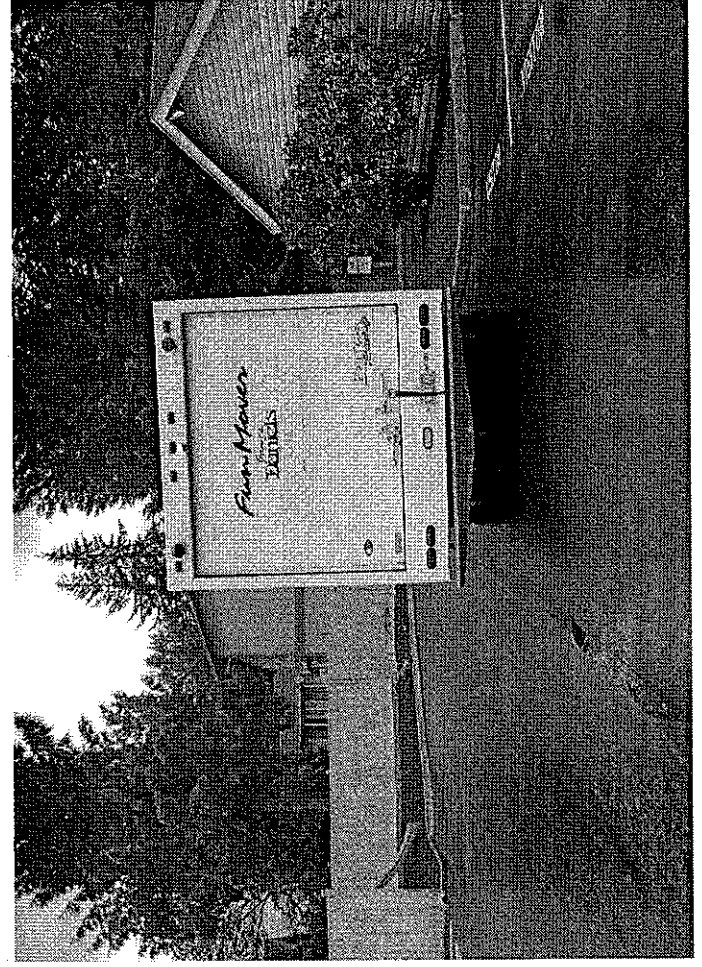

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing statement is true and correct.
